

Planning to Write about a Momentous Event and Starting at the End

Name:		Class:		Date:
Your momentous event:
One (last) sentence that describes the climax of your moment:
What were you doing during (or leading up to the moment) and what was going on around you? (brainstorm five interesting verb phrases)
How did you feel during this moment, or the moments leading up to the climax? (brainstorm five interesting verb phrases)
Where were you during this moment? (Include ordinary as well as unusual details about the setting)
What did you see, smell, taste, hear, and touch during the events right before and during the climax of your momentous event? (Use very descriptive adjectives and powerful verbs to complete the sentence starters below)
I saw . . .	I tasted . . .	I smelled . . .	I heard . . .	I touched . . .
On the back side of this page, draw a visual representation of the climax of your momentous event.					