

Name: _____

Make 'em Laugh or Cry or...

Writing an emotion-evoking paragraph or story that uses lots of interesting details

What will my story/paragraph be about?
Story object:	Story verb:	Setting:
What mood will I try to leave my reader feeling after they have read my writing?
Story mood:

Before writing, list five or six interesting nouns you might use when giving details about your story object:	For each noun listed on the left, come up with an adjective or verb that would not only further describe the object but might also help the reader feel your story mood.
•	•
•	•
•	•
•	•
•	•
•	•
•	•

Think about your story's setting. If you wanted your setting description to help set your story's mood, what are several details might you share with your reader?

When you have this page filled with details for your story, you may start writing on another piece of paper.