

Mrs. Polson's amazing fifth graders wrote their "So Much Depends Upon" Poems after completing an art project where they used pastels to complete the missing side of a halved magazine picture given to them. The sixteen word poems below are inspired by this classroom art project.

So much depends upon
Wondrous underwater adventures, fish,
Naturally beautiful water, oceans,
Sand, floating fish. Life.

by Lauren, fifth grade writer

So much depends upon
A yellow fuzzy decomposer
Awesome, slimy, wild, hairy Living on death of others.

by Kristian, fifth grade writer

So much depends upon
A tremendous, yummy, extremely Tender, gushing juiciness, calorized
Very well-done steak.

by Jack, fifth grade writer
