

Name _____

Mind Movie and Pre-Writing Guide

	Picture in your mind what you HEARD.  Write down those details focusing on your verbs and adjectives.	Picture in your mind what you SAW.  Write down those details focusing on your verbs and adjectives.	Illustrate the scene.
First sound clip Give it a title: <hr/>
Second sound clip Give it a title: <hr/>

Name

“Beautiful Noise”

What did Neil Diamond HEAR in his song?

Based on what he heard, what do you think he could SEE?

Your interpretation

Words from the lyrics to support this

Your interpretation

Words from the lyrics to support this

Illustrate the scene:

Name

Brainstorm for your “Beautiful Noise”

What is your noise?

Where does your noise occur?

What sounds do you hear?

If you were allowed to write about what you see (You’re not!), what objects would be present?

What sounds do these objects make?

Illustrate what you want your reader to see when your poem is complete.