

Name: _____

Quest Item Poetry brainstorming sheet

Instructions: For this poem, you will describe yourself (or a character) as a traveler moving through life, and you will carry three items with you to make this journey completely yours...no one else's. Use this brainstorming sheet to help you think poetically about three items you can carry. None of the items you carry may be weapons, and they must be items you already own.

My first item I will carry with me:	My second item I will carry with me:	My third item I will carry with me:
Describe your first item poetically:	Describe your second item poetically:	Describe your third item poetically:
Use a simile to describe it:	Use a simile to describe it:	Use a simile to describe it:
It's as _____ as	It's as _____ as	It's as _____ as
If you were to apply a human verb to it (personification), what verbs might work?	If you were to apply a human verb to it (personification), what verbs might work?	If you were to apply a human verb to it (personification), what verbs might work?
What unusual adjective might describe this item?	What unusual adjective might describe this item?	What unusual adjective might describe this item?
Where do you carry this item, and what can you do with it?	Where do you carry this item, and what can you do with it?	Where do you carry this item, and what can you do with it?
How is this item more powerful than any weapon?	How is this item more powerful than any weapon?	How is this item more powerful than any weapon?

(use back, if necessary)

Poem's Title: _____

Intro:	Do you need to introduce your reader to the fact that you're on a journey? How can you do that poetically?
Quest Item #1:	Poetically describe how you (or your character) walk through life with this item. Be creative and descriptive.
Quest Item #2:	Poetically describe how you (or your character) walk through life with this item. Be creative and descriptive.
Quest Item #3:	Poetically describe how you (or your character) walk through life with this item. Be creative and descriptive.
Conclusion:	Do you need to conclude this poem about this person on a journey through life?

Use another piece of paper, if necessary.