

Group member names:

Put 'em on Oprah!—Skit Planning Sheet

an original WritingFix writing assignment (<http://writingfix.org>)

Who will the characters be in this talk-show skit?

Character #1: Talk-Show Host

What will the "topic" of today's show be?

In what order will the other characters be interviewed on the stage?

Will any of the characters be members of the studio audience who have questions? Which ones?

Character #2:

What part(s) of the original fairy tale story will this character help share in this skit?

Write down four or five words that describe how this character will speak:

Character #3:

What part(s) of the original fairy tale story will this character help share in this skit?

Write down four or five words that describe how this character will speak:

Character #4:

What part(s) of the original fairy tale story will this character help share in this skit?

Write down four or five words that describe how this character will speak:

Who will the characters be in this talk-show skit?

Character #5:

What part(s) of the original fairy tale story will this character help share in this skit?

Write down four or five words that describe how this character will speak:

Character #6:

What part(s) of the original fairy tale story will this character help share in this skit?

Write down four or five words that describe how this character will speak:

Character #7:

What part(s) of the original fairy tale story will this character help share in this skit?

Write down four or five words that describe how this character will speak:

Character #8:

What part(s) of the original fairy tale story will this character help share in this skit?

Write down four or five words that describe how this character will speak: