

Name:

What Got Stolen?: Graphic Organizer

An original writing lesson from WritingFix

| Who will be robbed? | What will be stolen? | Who will the suspect be? |
|---------------------|----------------------|--------------------------|
|                     |                      |                          |

In part one of your story, the person who is robbed will need to describe the crime. What details will you include?

In part two of the story, the person who is robbed will need to look for the stolen object. What details will you include?

In part three of the story, the person who is robbed will need to find the stolen object. What details will you include?