Giving Voices to Animals

An original WritingFix (<http://writingfix.org>) writing assignment

Instructions: You'll be planning and writing several monologues that are said by two different animals today...just like you heard in the book I Am the Dog I Am the Cat. First, decide what your two animals and their two voice descriptors will be, and write them below. Then, thinking about your voice descriptors, brainstorm ideas on this page to use in your animals' speeches.

You will write your actual monologues on the next few pages.
