

Second Graders respond to My Many Colored Days by Dr. Seuss
(inspired by a lesson found on-line at <http://WritingFix.com>)

On black scary days,
I feel freaky
Like a bat squeaking for his prey.

by Casey

On my orange days, I like how
I can lean like a tiger in a tree.
On my yellow days, I have fun like a roller coaster ride in a park.
On my gold days, I feel happy and calm.
On my red days, I'm as sad
as an elephant with no peanuts.

by Jackson

On blue days,
I am feeling sad
Like a fish who no one likes.
On rainbow days,
I am feeling dizzy
Like somebody out of control.

by Michael

On quiet brown days,
I'm hibernating like a bear in Winter in his cave.

On cold blue days,
I'm cold like a polar bear.

by Adrian

Direct link for the lesson that inspired this writing:

http://writingfix.com/Picture_Book_Prompts/ManyColoredDays1.htm