

Fun with Sensory Details!

from Dena Robinson, NNWP Consultant

Directions: For each subject listed below, fill in details for each of the five senses. Be sure to use details that really appeal to the senses. Your goal is to help the reader actually feel, see smell, taste, or hear what you are describing. When you have finished, pick your favorite subject and include your details in a descriptive paragraph. Be prepared to share!

Subject:	Touch:	Sight:	Smell:	Taste:	Sound:
Baking cookies
Haunted house
Swimming in an ocean
A circus
The mall					