

An example poem for two voices
written by Northern Nevada Writing Project Consultant Campbell Valle

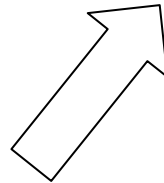

Voice #1:

I am a polar bear
I eat fish
I must swim for my food
But I can't swim forever
When I get tired
I depend upon

Voice #2:

I am an SUV
I guzzle petroleum
People pump mine
I burn gas pretty fast
When I pollute
I begin to destroy

Ice caps.

(said together)
