

This is filled out before learning:

This is filled out after learning:

The most important thing about variables and unknowns is:

They also:

And they also:

2 words related to them and how they are related:

And they never:

From this organizer, please design a page (or pages) from The Important Book that have the following pattern - "I used to think the most important thing about variables and unknowns was _____(use the cloud side), but now I think the most important thing about variables and unknowns is _____(use the box side). Illustrate your picture.